HONGKONG UNIVERSITY HEAD LAUDS EDWARD EZRA

Sir William Brunyate Tells Of Aid He Gave Students

DEGREES GIVEN

Sir Charles Addis Sees School As Factor For Unity

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hongkong, Jan. 12.—At a congregation for conferring degrees yesterday evening, Sir William Brunyate in the course of a long speech mentioned the late Mr. Edward Ezra as the donor of several scholarships tenable for pupils of Shanghai Municipal Council Schools which owe their interest to the fact that he limited his generosity not by a fixed sum but undertook to pay the private bills of students whatever, in reason, their amount might be.

Sir William Brunyate spoke of his attendance at the annual conference of the Associated British Chambers of Commerce a Shanghai. British merchants looked to the Hongkong University as the natural head of a system to assist British Missionary schools in China.

SIR CHARLES ADDIS SPEAKS

Sir Charles Addis in a speech expressed thanks for the conferment of the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws and said he believed that in this far-flung outpost of the British Empire, that foundations had been well and truly laid of an imperial university which a long while after its founders had passed from the scene would stand as a living organism to uphold, in their growing complexity, the highest traditions of British learning and education in their relation to the moral, intellectual and aesthetic needs of the colony of Hongkong and of the allied and friendly country of China. We shall have been foiled in our purpose, he continued, if it fails to promote the solidarity of both races and serve as an instrument binding still more closely the ties which should unite them in their effort to attain peace within their respective borders. Continuing, Sir Charles Addis said that for the most part, British and Chinese interests were identical. China's interests, he added, are our interests, her prosprity is our prosperity and her peace our peace.

UNDERSTAND EACH OTHER

The British and Chinese people learn to understand each other, show forbearance for mutual failings, make allowances for racial differences, tolerate divergence of opinion and even points of view, comprehend or try to comprehend modes of thought other than their own, never dwell upon or exaggerate the variety of national manners and customs especially those which we dislike in each other, but rather perceive through all their apparent unlikeness the radical and essential oneness of the elementary facts of our common humanity in which these seeming and superficial differences find at once their origin and synthesis. I beg of you to believe that nothing I have said must be taken to imply that the civilisation of China is inferior to our own, but only that it has developed along different lines. In the West, it is in applied sciences that advance has been most marked; in the East it is in the domain of philosophy and sociology. China accumulated throughout the long course of her history vast stores of learning, as yet only partially explored and from which unexpected treasures of political wisdom and experience may yet be gathered by the West We have much to learn from each other and surely it is here, in this conception of a University, in this wider sense that the East and West may profitably meet to take counsel together, to devise ways and means for implanting in the hearts of young British and Chinese, in whose hands lies the destiny of both races, the germ of common ideal for the building up of that kind of civilisation which consists, not in abundance of material things, not even in strength of national armaments, but in the generous rivalry of two peoples possessed by that pure purpose and lofty idealism which alone can exalt a nation and make it great. (Loud and prolonged applause.)

OUST PREMIER OR GEN. WU WILL USE 'LAST EXPEDIENT'

Military Chief Gives President Three Days To Fire Liang

(Eastern News Agency)

Hankow, Jan. 12.—Rumors are persistently circulated here to the effect that General Wu Pei-fu yesterday addressed a telegram to the President, requesting the latter to dismiss Liang Shih-yi from premiership at once, and apprising that unless a reply is made within three days he will resort to the "last expedient."

It is also reported that General Wu has already wired to the Tuchuns of eight provinces, Chihli, Shantung, Honan, Shensi, Hupeh, Kiangsi, Kiangsu and Chekiang, asking them to take the same attitude.

A telegram is reported to have been received here stating that General Wu Pei-fu left Loyang for Paotingfu on the 10th instant in order to confer with Marshal Tsao Kun. It is expected that General Hsiao Yao-nan, Tuchun of Hupeh, will also despatch his representative to the North today.

Illinois Coal Mines Forced To Close

(Special To The China Press)

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 11.—Illinois coal mine operators who have withstood all previous slumps in business since the first opening of their mines, have been forced to close down. Among those shut are the Springfield district mine at Reverton which has been operating for fifteen years without a stop. The mines at Staunton, Mount Olive and Gillespie are also closing.

Sir Beilby Ashton To Call On Premier

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 9.—Reuter is informed officially that there is no truth in a report published in the Chinese press that following a correspondence between the Chinese and British Governments, Sir Beilby Alston had been informed by the British Foreign Office, in connection with his absence from the presidential reception on New Year's Day, that such diplomatic customs should not be discarded, and that the British Minister had consequently decided to call upon the president and tender his congratulations today.

(Special To The China Press)

Dublin, Jan. 9.—Prayers of Thanksgiving were offered today by Irish churchgoers as a result of the signing of the treaty. The breach in Dail Eireann seems to be widening, and it is not known whether De Valera will lead a bolt. The Countess Markewitz and other republican leaders declared that they will rebel against any provisional government under the treaty.

Dublin, Jan. 11.—The reported conference between British officials and the members of the new Irish cabinet has agreed on amnesty for political prisoners including those sentenced to death, according to reports in circulation here. The prisoners are to be released from both English and Irish jails this week.

R. G. ASHTON GETS JUDGMENT FROM MOUTRIE AND CO.

Mr. R. G. Ashton, former employe of Moutrie and Company, was awarded damages in the sum of $8,714.84 for wrongful dismissal and $100 for assault yesterday in the British Supreme Court in a decision handed down by Judge Skinner Turner.

In a long judgment it was held that when the late F. J. Hinton pushed the plaintiff out of the demonstrating room of the Nanking Road store where customers were being served into the open shop and told him to come back for his salary, constituted a dismissal, and that any jury would have come to the conclusion that Hinton must have intended to terminate the contract. The dismissal thus occurred and there was no justification, the Judge said.

There was no doubt that an assault was committed, the Judge found.

Stinnes Offers Big Loan To Dutch As Bait For Contracts

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 12.—It is reported that Herr Hugo Stinnes has offered the Dutch East Indies Government a loan of £10,000,000 at 6 percent on the condition that the 1922 contracts are placed with his combine. The budget provides for extensive constructional work in Java and Herr Stinnes apparently hopes to secure contracts totalling £40,000,000.

In order to further the already far-reaching trade relations with the Dutch Indies, Germans are instituting a central organisation of the German Chamber of Commerce for the East Indies with a branch at the Hague.

I. M. the Empress in the Imperial Palace, where a luncheon party is expected to be given in his honor.

BRITISH AND FRENCH PACT COMPLETED, FACES FIGHT

Treaty Is Sure To Be Vigorously Opposed In France

TO RUN TEN YEARS

Belgium To Be Invited To Join New Defensive Combination

(Reuter's Service)

Cannes, Jan. 12.—A French semi-official statement affirms that the proposed Anglo-French guarantee pact will be limited to ten years, but may be renewed without further notice. It consists of four or five precise and unambiguous articles and maintains intact the French rights under the Versailles Treaty. Besides Great Britain undertaking to give military assistance to France if she should be unprovokedly attacked by Germany, the demilitarisation clauses regarding the Rhineland are reinforced as both Powers undertake to intervene if Germany violates the military clauses of the Treaty. The pact does not refer to reparations or the question of sanctions.

Belgium will be invited to join the pact by the conclusion of an analogous Anglo-Belgian treaty reinforcing the defensive Franco-Belgian convention.

Cannes, Jan. 11.—Mr. Lloyd George today handed M. Briand the draft of the Anglo-French pact, which M. Briand will submit to the French Cabinet tomorrow.

London, Jan. 9.—A despatch from Cannes says that the Russian Soviet Government has accepted the invitation to attend the European Economic Conference.

London, Jan. 12.—It is reported from Washington that there is anxiety in responsible quarters lest Holland should drop out of the Nine-Power Agreement and request that any reference to her East Indian Empire should be limited to a careful statement of the islands acknowledging Dutch sovereignty.

(China Press Service)

Paris, Jan. 11.—Newspapers here are attacking the Cannes proceedings and especially the alliance.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Jan. 11.—That M. Briand is not a free agent is powerfully demonstrated by an important Republican combination in the Chamber, numbering 240, who passed a resolution which they telegraphed to M. Briand to the effect that the Chamber would never consent to ratify the new concessions to Germany to the detriment of France and Belgium and declaring that the Franco-British Alliance should be conditional on no concessions being made with regard to reparations or the guarantees conferred by the Versailles Treaty, particularly territorial.

London, Jan. 11.—While it is understood that the British Cabinet yesterday unanimously approved the proposed Anglo-French pact, French public opinion is apparently very critical. It seems that the French desire a compact for defence, but fear that France's foreign policy may be subordinated to the British.

There is talk of a French political crisis. It is stated that the French Cabinet is opposed to the agreements projected at Cannes, and in this connection it is significant that M. Briand is leaving Cannes for Paris today to meet the French Chamber, returning to Cannes on Friday.

Cannes, Jan. 11.—A long aide-memoire was presented to M. Briand by Mr. Lloyd George today which deals in a very candid manner with Franco-British misunderstandings, emphasises the necessity of putting an end to them at Cannes.

It sympathises with the French fears of German agression and also with the justifiable apprehensions regarding reparations and points out that Great Britain has also cause for anxiety and discontent on account of the economic conditions which are imposing serious suffering and privation on the most heavily taxed community in the world, therefore suggests a Franco-British agreement undertakes to support her ally in the event of unprovoked, German agression.

The Note declares that such an agreement would be supported not only by Great Britain but

Chinese Navy States Case On Salt Revenue Seizure; Makes Eloquent Defense

Want Only Wages Necessary To Avert Starvation; Reassure Foreign Interest And Promise Release Of Taxes When Debt Is Squared

The taking over of the Lianghu salt revenue by the Chinese naval authorities is staunchly defended by the officials of the Admiralty here—who claim it was actually a starvation measure—in a circular telegram sent yesterday to the President, Premier, members of the Cabinet, the Salt Inspectorate, the Provincial authorities and the press.

The telegram sets forth eloquently the distress under which the navy men have been laboring during the past months, in which time they have exhausted every available source for raising funds to tide them over while their salaries remained unpaid. The seizure of the salt revenue, they reaffirm, is merely a temporary measure, and then as soon as money is available in Peking it will be discontinued, any funds remaining over their necessities meanwhile to be turned over to the Government.

A translation of the telegram follows:

FORBEARANCE EXERCISED

"The payment of the Chinese navy has heretofore been made directly to the Navy by the Government at Peking, amounting to a monthly sum of several hundred thousand dollars, a sum by no means considerable. But owing to the impoverished condition of the National treasury, the payment has been for a long time in arrears. The non-payment of the salaries of the naval officers and men has not met with any serious consequences inasmuch as the officers themselves are cognisant of the unsettled conditions at home and the pressing problems abroad.

"They have been patiently waiting for instructions from the Central Government, knowing too well that any unwarranted demonstration on their part would seriously impair the peace and order of the whole nation. Under these distressed circumstances, nevertheless, the navy men have been continually doing their duty in response to the frequent calls of the Government for coast and Provincial defense, believing that it is their duty to maintain public peace, a responsibility which they acknowledge to be theirs. This is probably known to all.

IS STARVATION MEASURE

"During the last few months the naval authorities have done their utmost to tide over the stringency, but owing to the long delayed actions on the part of the authorities at Peking and the lack of sufficient resources, individual aids have been resorted to and exhausted, leaving no way to keep the men from hunger and starvation. We have tried every means to pacify the men, but the critical situation can no longer be controlled and we fear that untold consequences would soon become unavoidable. To save the situation, something must be done within our ability in order to maintain order and assist the Government in her disabilities.

"It has come to our knowledge that the salt revenue surplus nets the Government a sum averaging four or five million dollars monthly. This revenue has in the past partly been utilised in paying the Chinese Navy but it constituted a fractional part of the money. Should this surprise be apportioned to pay off the arrears of the pay for naval men, it would not in any way affect the National loans and it is only in so doing that order could be maintained.

NO MISAPPROPRIATION

"It has now been decided by the Admiralty and the Fleet as a whole to hold up the salt surplus of the Lianghu Salt Collectorate with a view to use it to pay the men. What remains after paying would be turned over to the Government without the least misappropriation for other uses.

"This is the last resort to save the situation for the time being. As soon as definite funds are available in Peking, this measure would be discontinued.

"Inasmuch as the Salt revenue is a security for foreign loans, we deem it expedient to uphold our national credit, and we realise it is a necessity to give this matter due consideration and attention. Let it be known to all the Ministers of the Powers that it is due to our difficult position that we take this step, and in order to avoid any misunderstanding, we wish to state that the main reasons for such an action on our part is that the existing circumstances force us to take unusual precautionary measures in order to avert grievous consequences, and we trust that the foreign Ministers will agree with us in considering our action reasonable in the present case of absolute emergency.

(Signed) "Vice-Admiral Chang Tsen.

"Rear-Admiral H. K. Tu.

"Rear-Admiral K. S. Yang."

WU WIRES SYMPATHY

The Minister of the Navy, Li Ting-hsin, will tender his resignation owing to his failure to induce the Commander-in-Chief of the Navy to recede from his position with regard to the holding up of the salt funds, according to word received here through the Dah Tong News Bureau yesterday.

Other telegrams received from Peking stated that the foreign Ministers at the capital have lodged written protest to the seizure at the Waichiaopu.

General Wu Pei-fu, Tuchun Siao Yao-nan of Hupeh, Tuchun Chi-Shih-yuan and Civil Governor Wang Ho, of Kiangsu, are reported in the Chinese press to have telegraphed to the naval authorities here expressing sympathy and the hope that the salt funds will be released as soon as payment of the back wages due has been made.

The seven warships which moved up river to effect the seizure—two cruisers, two gunboats, two torpedo boats and a transport—were reported yesterday to be still lying at Shih Er Huai, near Yangchow.

Navy Department To Block Seizures

(Dah Tong News Bureau)

Peking, Jan. 11.—The Waichiaopu has notified the Diplomatic Corps that the Ministry of Navy has taken steps to prevent materialisation of the proposal of naval authorities at Shanghai to seize the salt revenues at Chinkiang in lieu of back pay. This preventive measure is said to have been inspired by the report that the Diplomatic Corps would take action to guard the revenues by force.

U. S. INDIGNATION OVER CHINA'S DEFEAT FORCES CONFERENCE EXTENSION

Outburst Of Criticism Follows Failure To Act In Shantung Dispute; British And Japanese Delegations Cancel Sailing Reservations

PACT DEFEAT IN SENATE LOOMS

Republican Leaders Fear Loss Of Power At Next Election If Eastern Status Quo Is Endorsed; Siberian Issue To Be Settled

(Exclusive To The China Press) (Trans-Pacific News Service

Washington, Jan. 11.—The disarmament conference is to be prolonged, it is now announced. Mr. Balfour, head of the British delegation, and the Japanese envoys have cancelled their sailing reservations, and there is much excited speculation over their reasons for doing so. It was known up to twenty-four hours ago that the British and Japanese delegations confidently expected adjournment by Saturday.

What happened behind the scenes is not known, but it is believed that Secretary of State Hughes told the delegates that if they thought the conference was over they were very much mistaken, as much of the agenda awaited consideration rather than dismissal with resolutions.

It is believed here that the outburst of criticism in America against the conference when it was realised that adjournment was planned caused Hughes to act since he feared, in the face of the country's attitude, that the quadruple treaty and other pacts would be defeated if nothing more definite were done.

The fate of the four power pact is already uncertain, and the Shantung deadlock, with the refusal of the Japanese to yield in the railway dispute, has brought hidden criticism to the surface. The Shantung situation rubs an old American sore and it is believed that Republican leaders informed Secretary Hughes that the Senate endorsement of the four power treaty would not be forthcoming unless there was a proper settlement of the Shantung issue, and further, that without such a settlement there would be danger of a Republican defeat at the next election.

One faction has gone so far as to predict that even the naval limitation treaty will be beaten in the Senate if the Far Eastern status quo is approved by the Conference.

Adjourment is now unlikely before January 22. It is now reported that the Siberian question has been taken up in detail since the publication of the alleged Franco-Japanese secret treaty. The Japanese admission that their government had been supporting Semenoff has had a marked effect on public opinion in America, with the result that Washington is thick with rumors of dramatic events behind the scenes, with even more dramatic possibilities in the immediate future.

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, Jan. 7.—Mr. Steklon, commenting on the changing attitude of America favoring the recognition of Soviet Russia, writes in the Izvestia as follows:

"Evidently the Washington Conference does not proceed as smoothly as the U.S.A. likes. We know that the plans of America have met with opposition, especially from France and Japan. In reality the conflicts taking place behind the scene is of a much graver nature.

"At best the Washington Conference may only defer an imminent conflict of the interests of capitalists on the shores of the Pacific, but it is powerless to remove the conflict entirely, and it is worth while to note that at the Conference the incompatibility of American and Japanese interests has been plainly demonstrated. When America awoke to the fact, she remembered Russia, of whom she thought until then very little, or rather tried to think as little as possible.

"Perhaps this fact explains why the Siberian question, which from the beginning was omitted from the agenda of the Conference, by the silent acquiescence of the conferees, now is being pushed forth. America is evidently going to raise the Siberian question at the Conference in spite of the wish of Japan to the contrary.

"Now is the time to attain in one form or another an agreement between Soviet Russia and the United States, the sooner the better."

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Jan. 12.—While awaiting word from Tokio regarding the Pacific fortifications in the Naval Treaty, the representatives of the "Big Five" today considered other features of the treaty.

The question which Tokio must decide is whether the string of islands extending 300 miles south of Japan should be included in the territory where, under the provisions of the treaty, fortifications are to remain in statu quo, or, in other words, what is the extent geographically of the term "Pacific Islands?"

The delay in arriving at a solution of this question makes it improbable that the plenary session of the Conference will be held until next week.

RUSSIAN PAPER HERE TO PUBLISH FAMINE NUMBER

"Shanghai Life" To Give All Proceeds Of Issue To Sufferers

Supplementing other efforts it has made to relieve the famine in the Volga and other districts in Russia the company which publishes the Shanghai Life is to issue a special Famine Relief number which will appear next Sunday. Subscriptions sought by the paper in recent weeks brought in more than $1,000 and this money has been forwarded through the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank and the Russo-Asiatic Bank to the Public Committee on Russian Famine Relief at Harbin.

The special issue of the Shanghai Life next Sunday is to be devoted wholly to the raising of funds to alleviate distress in Russia and the gross proceeds from the sale and from advertisements in this number of the paper will be sent to the committee on Russian Famine Relief at Harbin which already has dispatched several train loads of food and necessities to the starving populations in the north.

With the exception of the paper, which is special, the entire cost of this Famine Relief Number is being borne by the publishing company, staff and workers of the Shanghai Life, together with its contributors, all of whom have offered their services gratuitously for the cause.

The number will be illustrated and will contain about 20 pages of interesting matter and will be given the widest possible publicity by being sent to every city in Siberia and Russia, to newspaper offices, government and public offices.

Cash donations to the Russian Famine Relief Fund are being accepted at the offices of the Shanghai Life, at No. 12 Boone Road.

CHINESE TROOPS LOST, GET GUIDE, THEN ALL'S WELL

On Way To Arsenal, They Wander Into Settlement By Mistake

Two hundred serious-minded Chinese soldiers marching eight abreast behind Capt. Wong Tuh-sing, an earnest soul, were on their way, seemingly without knowing precisely where they were going yesterday when they paraded over the Settlement boundary and went lurching along Yu Yuen Road.

A member of the British constabulary who was just about as ardent a soul as Capt. Wong Tuh-sing, halted the concourse at Edinburg Road.

"What thing?" he queried.

In due course explanations were given by the courteous Capt. Wong Tuh-sing who said his troops came from the Chapei Barracks and were en route to the Arsenal for rifle practice. They had lost their way, he said. Whereupon a guide was supplied and the soldiers were escorted to the Arsenal by way of Chinese territory.

Shipping Board To Take Food To Russ

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Jan. 12.—At a conference between Mr. Hoover, Mr. Lasker, chairman of the Shipping Board, and President Harding it was agreed that vessels belonging to the Shipping Board which are now idle, should carry grain to Russia at cost price. A bill was introduced in the House of Representatives authorising the construction of a channel connecting the Great lakes with the sea via Welland Canal and the St. Laurence River, the expense to be equally borne by the United States and Canada.

Snatcher Of Purse From Foreign Lady Comes To Grief

One of the corps of Chinese loafers who have been active lately in snatching handbags from foreign women came to grief Wednesday afternoon when he tried to wrest a pocketbook from Mrs. A. L. Brandt on Szechuen Road, near the Whiteaway, Laidlaw store.

When the Chinese grabbed the handbag, Mrs. Brandt caught hold of him and managed to check his flight. He broke away, however, just as another foreign lady came up. The latter made a snatch for the bag and managed to catch and wrest it from his grasp and at the same time Police Constable Hermitage dashed up and collared the man.

The thief appeared in the Mixed Court yesterday and pleaded guilty to the charge. He told the police that his reason for snatching the handbag was that he was suffering from hunger, but a search of his clothes brought forth 30-odd cents. He will be sentenced next Tuesday, the matter being adjourned to permit the taking of his fingerprints and investigation of his record.

Unemployment In U. S. Drops Slightly

(China Press Service)

Washington.—Unemployment in the United States continues to show a steady though slow decrease, according to monthly reports to the United States Department of Labor. From its studies in sixty-five industrial centers, the department announces that 1,428 of the larger employing concerns in the country had 7,219 more men on the payrolls on November 30 than on October 31, or an increase of almost one-half of one percent.

Paper, printing, lumber, iron and steel, automobile manufacture, and textile establishments, all took on more hands while railroad repair work, leather industries, and food producing establishments reported a reduction of employes.

In the department's list of cities, forty showed more workers employed during the month, and twenty-four had decreases of employment.

Both New York and Chicago, by small percentages, reported increased unemployment.

W. C. T. U. HAS BIG PROGRAM FOR THIS YEAR

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of China, which has a membership of more than 5000 in all sections of China, has launched a program of interest for the work of 1922.

The annual conference of the Union, which was in Shanghai this week under the direction of Dr. Mary Stone, president, was attended by Chinese women from northern, central, southwestern and southern provinces.

The slogan for the union this year is—

"Away with liquor,
Away with tobacco,
Away with gambling,
Away with foot-binding,
Away with opium."

According to Dr. Mary Stone foot-binding is still practiced in the interior cities of China and much propaganda work must be done before the "golden lilies" disappear completely in China.

Dr. Stone also deplores the fact that opium is being grown and used in China and that so little action is being taken by the authorities to prevent this.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union in China will strive to double its membership this year. Women field secretaries will be sent to mission and government schools throughout China to interest the young women in the movement.

TRADE AGREEMENT

(Reuter's Service)

CHINESE CAUGHT IN GAMBLING RAID DIES OF FRIGHT

Fright occasioned by his being caught in a gambling raid made by Louza Police at 48 Tsung Yoh Ka Wednesday evening is believed to have occasioned the death of an unidentified Chinese.

Inspector Kerrigan testified yesterday at the Mixed Court that the man, one of 17 arrested in the raid, was apparently seized with a fainting fit while being taken to the police station. He was sent to hospital and life was found to be extinct. Inspector Wheeler told the court that he had just received a message from Dr. Chen, of Shantung Road Hospital, who conducted an autopsy, to the effect that the man was sufferer from tuberculosis and that death might have been hastened by fright. There was no question, however, that the victim died of natural causes and so it was not necessary, the court held, to detain any of the others as witnesses.

The proprietor of the gambling establishment was fined $30, eleven gamblers were fined $3 each and the others forfeited their bail money by not appearing, $10 in each case.

The proprietor of the place entered the plea that his mother was ailing and that after sending her to the country he had to invite a few friends in to gamble in order to secure funds for her upkeep.

Soldier Bonus Bill Hits New Obstacle

(Special To The China Press)

Washington, Jan. 11.—The White House indicated that President Harding expects the soldier bonus bill to be passed in present session but that the measure must provide the source because the administration is not willing to assume the responsibility of a large bond issue.

Studies Speed Of Glaciers In Alaska

Juneau, Dec. 22.—The speed of Alaskan glaciers is being studied by Prof. William S. Cooper of the University of Minnesota. He is making a special examination of Muir Glacier at Glacier Bay. Muir Glacier has receded sixty miles in the last 127 years. When Vancouver visited the glacier in 1794 he found the ice extended to the mouth of Glacier Bay.

Prof. Cooper hopes to determine the time that has elapsed since many parts of the earth now free were covered with ice.

VISITORS HERE ARE HEARD BY ROTARY CLUB

Particularly interesting addresses were given yesterday at the weekly tiffin of the Shanghai Rotary Club by Dr. Kenyon L. Butterfield, President of the Massachusetts Agricultural College, and Dr. Henry Fowler, leprosy, investigator, who is connected with the London Missionary Society. The tiffin meeting was held at the Carlton Cafe.

Dr. Butterfield traced the history of the development of the relations between the farmer and the business man and banker in the United States and then showed how agriculture was a world problem of interest to business men of all countries.

The speaker showed how the number of people who derive their livelihood from the soil, uniting to further the largest single financial interest in America, are intimately related to industry, banking and business and traced the stages in the development of the present-day co-operation between the elements.

Dr. Fowler gave an interesting twenty-minute study of leprosy, its history, distribution, cause and cure. He said that there are 400,000 lepers in China today and urged that business men aid the fight against the disease by subscribing funds to institutions attempting to alleviate the suffering.

President Harold C. Norman presided at the meeting.

Lu Tsung-yu May Not Get Peking Job

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 9.—It is understood that in view of serious opposition raised by the residents of Peking to the proposed appointment of Mr. Lu Tsung-yu as Superintendent of the Metropolitan area, the matter is being reconsidered.

It is now thought that Mr. Lu may be offered the post of Director of the Currency Reform Bureau, in succession to Mr. Hsu Shih-jang who is likely to be given the former post instead of Mr. Lu.

On the other hand it is hinted that the Minister of the Interior is desirous of receiving the customary concurrent appointment as superintendent of the metropolitan area, and that he laid the matter before General Tsao Kun in the course of his visit to Tientsin on Saturday.

Mr. Shen Juei-lin, vice-minister of foreign affairs, assumed office on Saturday.

USE OF OPIUM SHOWS BIG GAIN IN MANCHURIA

Addicts More Numerous Than In Early Days, Says Association

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 9.—Reuter's Agency is informed by the International Anti-Opium Association, Peking, that reports from the big cities of Manchuria show a recrudescence in the use of addictive drugs which exceeds the early opium days when no restrictions were placed on their use or sale. This condition corresponds with the reports which are daily reaching the Association from many parts of China. The morphia influx which is increasing month by month undoubtedly threatens to envelop China with a more destructive force than opium.

In Mukden and South Manchuria generally the sale of morphia is principally in the hands of Japanese druggists and peddlers. The latter are initiating the villages in large numbers in the use of drugs. As drugs are cheaper than opium they are preferred.

Jehol opium is being sold at $2.00 per ounce for the cheaper and $4.00 for the better quality. This low cost is attributed to the competition of opium brought in by a gang of smugglers from Siberia and North Manchuria. This gang is said to consist of Russians, Japanese, Chinese, Greeks, Caucasians, Turks and nondescripts of other nationalities, to the number of about a thousand.

WOMEN AID SMUGGLERS

They are said to have in their pay minor Customs, Railway and Police officials all along the line of traffic, so that it is rarely that one of them is arrested. Associated with this gang are foreign women who travel between Changchun and Peking carrying morphia and cocaine on their persons. These women retail the "snow" to the frequenters of the places where they reside.

The Yih Shih-pao, in a recent issue, spoke of the ease with which morphia pills can be procured in all but the largest tea houses in Peking.

Vladivostok and Dairen are becoming veritable plague spots from which issue a virus more insidious and more really destructive than plague.

The Association points out that until these gangs are broken up and severely dealt with there is little to be gained by punishing the coolie victims. Not a single Japanese morphia shop in Manchuria named in the Peking and Tientsin Times Supplement in 1920 has been closed. On the contrary their number has been increased.

LOOK TO COMMISSION'S VISIT

As an anti-opium institution the Association is looking forward eagerly to a visit of the Commission of the League of Nations for the purpose of making investigations of the conditions in China. This may drive the traffic further underground or materially aid in stopping it, by the international indictment of those concerned.

Two branches of the Association, Peking and Raifengfu have recently closed or suspended as a protest against official obstruction and general indifference, but the facts must soon be faced by the Chinese authorities, that they have either to take strong measures of repression or lose the sympathy of the world.

The attention of the Government should be concentrated in the first instance on driving the gang mentioned above out of business. Practically everyone in North China, interested in the matter, is familiar with the reports of the gang's operations from which vast sums of money are being made daily by these most disreputable elements. Yet the work goes on. Undoubtedly a percentage of their profits goes into Chinese hands, and for this pittance these Chinese are allowing their nation to be ruined.

Last year the Health Department was at considerable pains to eliminate a swampy patch of ground off Medhurst Road, employing for the purpose much dirt filler. The other day Mr. Houghton of the Department passed the spot and noted that some 40 or 50 tons of soil had been removed and the area was fast reverting to its former soggy state. So a departmental coolie was posted near the spot with instructions not to take his eyes off it. Shortly thereafter the coolie went in search of a policeman and had two wheelbarrow men arrested as they were loading up their vehicles. In the Mixed Court yesterday one of the men denied ever having any ideas on the subject of dirt and the other declared that he was merely turning over the ground in hopes of finding something of value. Each drew a three days' jail sentence.

College And Bearcats Win Over 'Y' And S.P.S.

Both Scores Decisive; Games Tonight At Rowing Club At 5:30 O'clock

Shanghai College and the Bearcats won at basketball last night on the "Y" floor over the Y.M.C.A. and the Shanghai American School teams, by respective scores of 77-11 and 45-17.

The first match was a walk-away for the Yangtszepoo men. Hipps and Anderson piled up 24 and 32 points and King and Kelhofer helped out with 10 and 11 more. The "Y" men never had a chance. Bartlett threw four baskets from the floor and one from foul and Van Hook added one more from the floor.

In the second match the Bearcats, in spite of their wide score appeared to be fairly well held by the School. Their shooting and forward line combination counted for the score. The School was fighting at every step, but with unfortunate shooting and good protection by the opposition, their efforts were not rewarded with points.

The scores follow:

S'hai College 77,		Y.M.C.A. 11
King	LF	Lockwood
Hipps	RF	Van Hook
Anderson	C	Bartlett
Kelhofer	LG	Miller
Howes	RG	Roberts

Goals from floor—King 5, Hipps 12, Anderson 16, Kelhofer 4, Van Hook 1, Bartlett 4.

Goals from fouls—Kelhofer 3, Bartlett 1.

Bearcats 45,		S.A.S. 17 C. Squires
Roxburgh	LF	Parker
Gray	RF	Wiens
Irle	C	R. Squires
Geldhart	LG	Chase
Lewis	RG	Waters

Goals from floor—Roxburgh 8, Gray 6, Irle 8, Parker 2, C. Squires 1, R. Squires 4, Chase 1.

Goals from fouls—R. Squires 1, Gray 1.

Referee—Mr. Zee.

GAMES TONIGHT

The Strokeside and the Bowside meet at 5:30 this evening on the Rowing Club floor, to be followed, commencing at 6:30 by a match between the Public School and Anderson Meyer.

Scottish Company Has Field Maneuvers Sunday Morning

The Shanghai Scottish Company will be out on field maneuvers on Sunday morning next, starting at St. George's Farm at 8:30 a.m., after which Lieut and Mrs. Campbell will be at home to the members and their wives and friends. The scheme for the day is a very interesting one and should be of great help to all those who take part. For the benefit of those who live long distances from the rendezvous motor transportation has been arranged, particulars of which have already been circulated.

On Tuesday evening last the company listened to a very interesting lecture on the Lewis Gun by Sergt. Major Leighton, while recruits in the company were given instruction on the rifle by one of the N. C. Os.

It has been decided that those men who have not yet fired the Musketry Course shall do so during the first week end in February. On Sunday, February 5, the Company take tiffin on the Range and afterwards the Monthly Cup Competition will take place, the conditions of which will be the last practice of the Musketry Course.

On Burns' Night, January 25, the company will hold a smoking concert at the Masonic Club under the auspices of the St. Andrew's Society.

The strength is steadily increasing and there is a very keen spirit pervading the whole Unit.

Lafayette Gives Letters To Men Who Did Not Play

Easton, Pa.—The Lafayette College varsity "L" Club awarded a varsity letter to a football player who did not compete in one game this last season. He is Sam Bartlett, a halfback who was taken ill during the preliminary work at Dolawore-Pennsylvania and forced to undergo an operation which kept him on the side lines the remainder of the season.

Bartlett was a letter halfback in the 1920 campaign and "L" Club members thought he would have won his letter again this fall had he been able to compete.

Capt. Joe Leheck and Ed Kearney, two other halfbacks, who were injured and failed to compete in the required number of quarters, also were granted their letter.

WALTER CAMP'S ALL-STAR TEAM FROM THE WEST

Only four football stars of Eastern Colleges were given places on the first All-American team in Walter Camp's selections, and of the 33 men selected for his three elevens not more than nine Easterners were mentioned. Two of Camp's selections for his first and two for his third elevens were from Southern schools. The Army got a man on the third eleven, and the Navy one each on the second and third.

Camp in his comment on his selections writes that the West gave the East its severest lesson ever yet taught in American Football. He points to the success of the Western schools as the result of a different, more democratic system of training and selection.

The University of California is the only team to have three men mentioned in Camp's three teams, and in his "honor roll" almost the entire California backfield including Erb, Morrison, Nichols, Nesbit and Toomey are mentioned, while Crammer and Latham, guard and center respectively also are honored. Brick Muller, California end is given the first position on the first eleven. Dan McMillan tackle, and Brod'e Stephens, end are on the third All-American team.

Yale had two men selected, one for the first team and one for the third. Harvard also received two selections, one for first and another for the second team. Penn State has a man on the first eleven and another on the second. Princeton has a man on the second eleven and another on the third. Cornell furnished the ninth Easterner.

Roberts, end for Center, made the first eleven, while Bo McMillan, the star of the big game Center-Harvard was selected as a half back for the second team. Michigan, Lafayette, Chicago, Center and Iowa each provided a man for the first team. No one college got more than one player in Camp's first eleven.

The selections follow:

CAMP'S ALL-AMERICAN

End, Muller, California.
Tackle, Stein, Wash. and Jeff.
Guard, Schwab, Lafayette.
Center, Vick, Michigan.
Guard, Brown, Harvard.
Tackle, McGuire, Chicago.
End, Roberts, Center.

Halfback, Killinger, Penn State.
Halfback, Aldrich, Yale.
Fullback, Kaw, Cornell.

SECOND TEAM

End, Swanson, Nebraska; tackle, Slater, Iowa; guard, Trott, Ohio, State; center, Larsen, Annapolis; guard, Bendenk, Penn State; tackle, Keck, Princeton; end, Kiley, Notre Dame; quarter, McMillin, Center; halfback, Owen, Harvard; halfback, Davies, Pittsburg; fullback, Mohardt, Notre Dame.

THIRD TEAM

End, Crisler, Chicago; tackle, Into, Yale; guard, Pucelik, Nebraska; center, Stein, Pittsburg; guard, Whelchel, Georgia; tackle, McMillan, California; end, Stevens, California; quarter, Lourie, Princeton; halfback, French, West Point; halfback, Barchet, Annapolis; fullback, Barron, Georgia Tech.

Three 'Unts For China New Year

Three 'unts are scheduled by the Shanghai Paper Hunt Club for the China New Year holidays, according to an announcement by Secretary A. W. Olsen, and the date has been fixed for the Hunt Handicap, to take place on February 11.

The first of the New Year paper chases will take place on Saturday, January 28, with the Griffin Hunt coming on Monday, January 30.

The Griffin Hunt is only open to bona fide griffins that arrived in Shanghai after August 1, 1921.

The third holiday hunt is set for Tuesday, January 31.

Starts and finishes of the 'unts will be announced later.

Elect Unkissed Football Captain President Of Purity League

A Purity League was recently formed by the students of New York University. Now, get this! To make sure that the league's purity was carried out in the proper manner they elected Jack Weinheimer, captain of the varsity football team president, who is reputed to be the only member of his class that has never been kissed by a girl.

Basketball At S. Public School

The Dollies and the Helens were victors over the Jessies and the Margarets in the first play of the School basketball league. The scores were:

Margarets 19, Helens 18.
Dollies 19, Jessies 12.

The teams were:

Margarets — Brockett, Herzberg, Brown, Abeles, Carlson.

Helens—Moosa, Hutchinson, Jesu, Petigura, Cumine.

Dollies — Levis, Whynne, Tajima, Cooke, Dietz.

Jessies—Madar; Griener, Shebury, Rowland, Anderson.

Levis Played a fast game for his team.

Mr. Teindle refereed both games.

The school turned out in full force to witness the play.

The two winning teams are figured to put up an exciting contest for the championship cup.

Interest in the great American winter indoor game is growing rapidly at the school.

F. L. TINKHAM AM'N SPORTMAN GOES TO PEKING

Mr. F. L. Tinkham, popularly known in American sport circles as just plain "Tink" is leaving soon for Peking where he has accepted a position with the American Oriental Banking corporation.

Tinkham was captain of the Shanghai American Football team after Cy Wilhoit's departure for Tientsin, has been Shanghai's pitching mainstay through many a baseball season, and is yet one of the strongest players on the winning American Trading Co. Basketball team.

The American Co., Shanghai Volunteer Corps, in their publication, The Minute Man express their regret at Tinkham's leaving as follows:

Members of the S.V.C. will learn with regret of the resignation of Corporal F. L. Tinkham, made necessary by his departure for Peking where he has accepted a position with the American-Oriental Banking Corporation.

Corporal Tinkham will be greatly missed in the American Company. Although active in baseball, football and basketball, yet he was able to do his full duty by the Company, a fact which we commend to the attention of other American athletes in Shanghai. Corporal Tinkham also found time to do considerable rifle shooting, and in October last secured third place in the Shanghai All-Comers' Match, with only one point less than the winner. Best wishes follow Corporal Tinkham to his new post in Peking.

'B' Company Has Weekly Parade Next Tuesday

The "B" Company (British), S.V.C. will hold a weekly parade at the Foochow Road Drill Hall on Tuesday, January 17, at 5:45 p.m. Dress: Uniform, but men unable to attend in uniform may come in mufti. A fuller attendance than has been the case lately is desired.

The football team met the Field Artillery Battery on Sunday, in the S.V.C. League and a very enjoyable game resulted in a win for the F.A.B. by 2 goals to 0. Considering the team had never played together before, the showing made was very creditable.

A match has been arranged against the Thomas Hanbury School to take place at Hongkew park next Sunday. A challenge from the Maritime Company has been received and will be taken up as soon as a date can be arranged. Matches with other Units will be welcomed.

Football League Resumes With Full Card Tomorrow

League Leaders Play Weaker Clubs; Recs-Police Game Good

The Shanghai Football Club "A" eleven and the Engineers, the two leaders in the Football League first division should have comparatively easy times in maintaining their lead in tomorrow's games. The former is matched against the Portuguese on their own grounds while the Engineers meet the Customs, the bottommost eleven in the standings on the Polo Field. The third first division game, that between the Recs and the Police on the S.R.C. field will see the closest competition for the two elevens are the more evenly matched.

In the second division the best match will be played at Hongkew between the division leaders, the Club "B," and the Public School boys, who bucked up last week and surprised everyone by beating the Engineers in the first round of the Scottowe cup, 3-1. The School feels stronger since that win and are bound to play the S. F. C. a hard game. Other second division matches are:

Navy vs. Recs 2nd, on the Police Field.

Portuguese vs. Rangers at Hongkew.

Jewish R. C. vs. Elect. Dept. on Widow's Monument field.

Chinese Alumni vs Ellis Kadoorie

The football team of the Public School for Chinese Alumni Association will meet the eleven of the Ellis Kadoorie Public School in the return match tomorrow at 3:00 p.m. on the latter's grounds, Carter Road.

The Ass'n will be represented by:

S. L. Lee, g. T. B. Oong, K. Y. Wha, f.b. T. Z. Yang, M. C. Chang, S. Y. Loch, h.b. Arthur Zee, S. Y. Huang, D. Y. Li, V. P. Wong, T. H. Yau, f.

Manchester City Undefeated For Nearly Two Years

Manchester City, in the first league of British Association Football, came within a hair's breadth of establishing a proud record of having played the best elevens in England for two years without suffering defeat. The two year term was up on Dec. 6. The eleven was matched against Bolton Saturday, Dec. 3, and they lost 3-2.

It was on December 6, 1919, when Manchester were last beaten at Ardwick, West Bromwich Albion being their conquerors. Since then they had fulfilled 41 engagements on the Hyderoad ground, won 33 of them, drawn eight, and lost none, scoring 99 goals against 27, and obtaining 74 League Championship points.

Following the defeat by the Albion, the City's unconquered career on their notorious enclosure during the remainder of that season (1919-20) comprised twelve games played, nine won, and three drawn, 21 goals being scored against 7, while 21 points were obtained.

Last season their home record consisted of nineteen victories and two draws in 21 matches, 50 goals being scored against their opponents' 13, and 40 points obtained. These incidentally placed the club second to Burnley in the honors list.

This year until the Bolton game they had indulged in eight games, won five, drawn three, and scored 19 goals against seven, to secure 13 points.

AM'N CO. TO MEET

The annual meeting of the American Company, S.V.C. will be held at the U. S. Court for China, at 5:30 p.m., on Thursday, Jan. 19, 1922. A good attendance is earnestly desired, as there are matters to be considered which are sure to be interesting.

ANGLO-CHINESE SCHOOL PUPILS AWARDED PRIZES

The annual prize distribution of the C. M. S. Anglo-Chinese School took place at 5 p.m. yesterday afternoon, the chair being taken by the Very Rev. Dean Symons, who was supported by Mr. L. J. Cubitt, of the Board of Trustees. The prizes were presented by Mrs. Symons, who at the close of the proceedings received a beautiful basket of flowers from the hands of a small boy who was under the impression that the Headmaster should have been the one to receive the bouquet.

After the Headmaster's report had been read, Wang Chiaosheng gave an excellent rendering of "The Fall of Wolsey;" this was followed later by "The Voice of Spring" given by Chen Jungsheng, one of the very small boys. A very able and forceful address on education was given by the Rev. W. Robbins, M.A. Mr. Robbins commenced by pointing out the two aspects of the subject—"putting in" and "drawing out," and stated that true education was a combination of these two aspects.

He went on to deal with the aim of education, mentioning the two aims of the present day education, and deplored the tendency to emphasise too greatly the utilitarian at the expense of character. He pointed out that the endeavor of Chinese educators in the past had been to produce "gentlemen" in the truest sense of the word, and after dealing very ably with the methods of education, he emphasised the fact that the teacher's duty is to inspire the student and to lead him to the acquirement of knowledge, courtesy, kindness, nobility and a true sense of the real values of things. The speaker concluded by pointing out the fact that God made man for himself, and that man is never truly happy until he returns to God.

The chairman addressed the boys both in English and Chinese, first giving a brief outline of the history of the school and speaking in very appreciative terms of the work rendered by Mr. Moule, who, he said, had rescued the school from educational chaos; while the excellent work done by Mr. Cubitt on the board had rescued it from financial chaos. He then addressed the boys in Chinese upon "the place of education" in relation to, first: "the individual," pointing out the difference in outlook of the educated and the uneducated; second; "the family," showing that where educated character is found there will be found health and happiness; third, "the State." A liberal education provides a country with wise and farseeing political leaders, he said.

The fourth point was with reference to the world at large, the speaker emphasising the fact that wise education leads away from selfishness towards service both to God and country.

Mr. Cubitt, in moving a vote of thanks to the chair and to Mrs. Symons referred to the loss sustained by the board of Trustees owing to the return to England of the Crown Advocate, Mr. Wilkinson and humorously remarked that he knew more about debits and credits—chiefly the former—than education, and as for the fact that the financial management meant holding the heavy end of the stick the only end of the stick he knew much about was that held by his headmaster many years ago and it was the other end of that which appeared the more weighty.

The special prize for History and Geography presented by H. Middleton, Esq. was won by Hsi Ju-nung, and was the object of much competition.

Among those present were Miss Fowler, Mrs. A. J. Bailey, Mr. C. S. Foster-Kemp and Mr. H. Middleton.

Chita Asks Rail Men To Aid Repairs

(Dalta News Agency)

Chita, Jan. 9.—The Far Eastern Committee of Trade Unions, jointly with the Far Eastern Union of Transport Workers, has issued an appeal to transport workers such as railway engineers, conductors, switchmen, oilers and mechanics to support the army of the government in their respective capacities by improving the condition of the railways.

Machine Gun Co. Active In Sport

The Machine Gun Company scored a further sporting success by defeating the "Scottish" at Rugger on New Year's Eve, and at this time it is interesting to review their activities during the past year. After a most successful cricket season as the only Volunteer Unit running a team they obtained second place in the race for S. V. C. Fours at Autumn Regatta, and have now won both the "Rugger" games they have played so far this season. It remains to be seen how they will fare on the Soccer field, but they have a very strong side.

This Company already has the proud boast of being the strongest British unit in the S. V. C. and hopes soon to be able to lay claim to being the leading sporting company.

Happily the same spirit and success run through the other side of the Machine Gun Company's activities. At the annual rifle meeting which took place in December, there was a record attendance, and a most enjoyable day's shooting resulted.

In the test mobilisation for the Corps Efficiency Shield this company so far has turned out a higher percentage of personnel than any other unit. They are also scoring remarkably well in the other branches of the competition for this trophy.

Good attendances at the weekly parades throughout the whole of the training season has enabled instruction on the technique of the gun to be carried on continuously and rapidly, so that at the end of this month firing on the range can be commenced. For this purpose the armored cars will be used on Sunday morning.

The addition of the armored cars to the equipment of the unit has necessitated a large increase in the establishment and a few more recruits are still needed, both as gunners and drivers, in order to complete the numbers. Anyone wishing to join the company should make application in the first place to the Company Sergt-Major, S. V. C. Headquarters.

Long Service Medals Ready For Issue Shortly To S. V. C. Men

The S. V. C. Long Service Medals should be available for issue in the near future. The conditions for the award of this medal were published in the Municipal Gazette of July 14, 1921, and in Corps Routine Orders No. 165 of July 15, 1921. The attention of ex-members of the Corps is called to the following extract from these conditions:—"In the case of an individual who has retired from the Corps, he will apply direct to the Commandant, giving details of his service in the Corps. The Commandant will refer such claim to a Committee of officers who have retired from the Corps with honorary rank, and who may be asked from time to time by the Council to serve on this Committee. The Committee will make their recomendations to the Commandant who will then, etc., etc." No applications for posthumous awards will be considered. The Committee mentioned in this extract will be invited to sit shortly. Ex-members of the Corps who are eligible for the award of the medal and who have not already sent in their applications are requested to do so now.

Peckinpaugh To Manage Senators

Boston, Mass., Jan. 11.—Harry Frazee, president of the Boston American Baseball Club today announced the completion of a three-cornered deal involving five players and resulting in the appointment of Roger Peckinpaugh as the playing manager of the Washington Americans.

Peckinpaugh, who played shortstop for the New York Yankees in the last World's Series, and incidentally made the error that lost the world's title to the Giants, was recently purchased by the Red Sox from New York.

Frazee gets Joe Dugan from Philadelphia and Frank O'Rourke from Washington for the Red Sox while Connie Mack gets Bert Acosta, the star Washington twirler, and Ed. Fuller from the Senators.

The deal has been in the air for some weeks and it has required some delicate manoeuvering with the three managers scrapping for the edge. Washington has long had anxious eyes directed toward Peckinpaugh.

U.S. Army Officers In Plunge Of Auto

Captain Amony Oliver and Lieut. Louis O. Davis, both of the 59th Coast Artillery, stationed at Corregidor Island, Manila, were instantly killed on December 28 when their automobile plunged over the Benguet road and fell 150 feet, according to information received in Shanghai today.

The two army officers were on their way from Manila to Baguio, the mountain resort of the Philippines to spend a short leave when the accident happened. As near as can be ascertained the engine balked on a sharp turn on the winding mountain road and backed over the cliff.

Captain Oliver's home was in Lampassas, Texas, and Lieut. Davis' home was in Tacoma, Washington. Captain Oliver was Assistant Adjutant of the 59th artillery.

DISASTROUS FLOODS

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Jan. 9.—Advices received in foreign official quarters here confirm the reports of disastrous floods in Szechuan.

THE NEW MYSTERIOUS FACTOR-IN-FOOD.

Science discovers that thousands suffer from lack of one vital element in their food.

A CERTAIN mysterious element in food called VITAMINE! Science has established that our store of energy and even health itself depend upon it.

One of America's most eminent physiological chemists says: "Long continued—general debility follows the continued ingestion of food containing too little of this vitamine."

Primitive man secured an abundance of vitamine from his raw foods and green leafy vegetables. But modern diet, refined and modified, has often been deprived of much of the water-soluble vitamine. That is why so many seemingly well-fed people are slowly lowering their vitality from day to day without knowing it.

The richest source of the precious water-soluble vitamine is—yeast, just yeast!

To get enough of this vitamine so essential to health thousands are already eating Fleischmann's Yeast, and are finding new stores of health and energy, and a vigor unknown for years. Physicians and hospitals are prescribing it to stimulate the appetite, help digestion and gradually take the place of laxatives.

Eat Fleischmann's Yeast before or between meals—from 1 to 3 cakes a day. It has a rich cream-cheesy consistency and distinctive flavor you will like. Nibble it from the cake or spread it with butter on crackers, toast or bread. Only one precaution: If troubled with gas, dissolve yeast first in boiling water.

Colds are mainly the result of a lowered Vitality. Fleismann's Yeast stimulates your resistance and helps digest the increased food which the appetite demands. The Bakerite Bakery, 36 Nanking Road, is using it in all their breads and beginning January 10, 1922, have arranged for the continued importation of it in cold storage and can supply it fresh in limited quantities.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

January 12, 1922

Spot and forward bar silver were each down 1-Sd. in London yesterday.

The New York price declined to 66 cents, and the London-New York cross rate improved to 423¼.

The official rates this morning were unchanged from yesterday, but the market throughout the morning was weak and, at the tiffin interval there were no sellers of Sterling at better than 3-6½ for cash, 3-6⅛ for January, 3-5⅝ for February and 3-5⅝ for March.

There were Gold Dollar sellers at the same time at 74¾ for January, 73½ for February and 73 for March.

In the Afternoon, the official Sterling rate was dropped to 3-6, the Gold Dollar rate to 74, and the Yen rate raised to 64¾.

After the change in rates, the market continued easy, and closed with possible sellers of Sterling at 3-6¼ for January, 3-5⅛ for February and 3-5¼ for March. There were sellers of Gold Dollars at 74½ for January, 73½ for February and 73 for March.

Silver advices from London and New York are on the easy side, the Continent and America being sellers on the London market, and the only possible buyer being India.

It is not unlikely, therefore, that we shall see a drop in the silver price within the next day or two.

Coal Market

In their coal market report, Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows:

Japan Coal:—We have another dull fortnight to report in this market which, however, is hardly to be wondered at considering the near approach of China New Year when, as has been the custom from time immemorial, the Chinese square up accounts between themselves and native dealers are averse to entering into any new business transactions until after the holidays.

In Japan the coal market is getting firmer day by day, according to latest reports.

Fushun Coal:—No change.

Fuchung Anthracite:—The same remarks as above apply also in this case and we do not expect to see any new business done until after the holidays which occur at the end of this month.

Kaiping Coal:—Although the market remains quiet prices here are firm in sympathy with the demand in the North and small stocks in Japan.

Arrivals have been fairly large but deliveries have continued on the same steady basis as during the last few months.

Freight Market

In their freight market report, Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows:

The situation in our outward freight markets is as follows:—

To United Kingdom and Continent:—There is again no charge to report on this berth and the worst of it is we can see no signs of any improvement for some time to come.

To United States Overland and via Canals:—As the tea season is now drawing to a close we expect even less cargo on these berths than hitherto.

The Trans—Pacific Freight Bureau announces that the ocean rate will remain at G.$6.00 per ton of 40c. ft. for the months of January, February and March 1922.

Coastwise:—With the advent of the China New Year holidays there is very little doing in our Northern market and with the exception of a few fixtures from Hankow to Swatow the chartering market is lifeless.

THE WISE MOTHER

AND BABY'S OWN TABLETS.

The ills of children come swiftly, and too often before a doctor can be called in or medicine obtained the little one is beyond aid.

The wise mother will always safeguard her little one by keeping Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, in the home. This medicine always does good—it cannot do harm as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs—and is confidently recommended as a remedy for teething troubles, constipation, diarrhoea, colic, indigestion, simple fever and worms.

Mrs. Napoleon Lambert, of St. Ignace, Quebec, writes:—"Baby's Own Tablets are an excellent medicine for childhood ailments and I am well pleased with them."

Obtainable from medicine dealers, also post free, 60 cents the vial, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Wu Pei-fu's Bargain

BY JOSEF W. HALL

THAT General Wu Pei-fu had made some sort of a bargain which closed his mouth at the time of Marshal Chang Tso-lin's Peking Cabinet-making expedition was evidenced by the abstention from active opposition to the assumption of office of the new government, as much as he disliked the personnel. He had acquiesced, through Tsao Kun, as before reported, in the plan to allow Chang Tso-lin practically a free hand in Peking government-making, in return for recognition of his own free hand along the Yangtsze and in dealings with the south.

It was understood, it appears, that Chang was to fill the government posts with men experienced and progressive in their lines, who would be able to tide the nation over the external crisis of the Washington Conference and the internal crisis of New Year's. There is abundant evidence that Wu has not been satisfied with the job. His studied neglect, and that of the provinces where his influence prevails, including Kiangsu, to congratulate the new Premier and Ministers has been significant.

On the other hand Wu has reason to be irritated because the side of the bargain favoring him has not been kept. The Liang Cabinet has not left negotiation with the south entirely to Wu; nor has Chang Tso-lin. Both have fished around in the pool, although they have caught nothing and the appropriateness of their bait has been decidedly doubtful.

Wu, taking advantage of the telegram of the Liang Cabinet to the Chinese delegates at Washington advising them to accept Japan's terms over the Shantung Railway, has at last given voice to his feelings. Addressing President Hsu as "Mr.," and quite ignoring Premier Liang, he has spoken in a manner which no self-respecting government could submit to from a theoretical subordinate. He has shown his utter disregard of the "face" of the present régime in Peking. This is in marked contrast to his attitude toward the Chin Cabinet, the prestige of which, in its weakest days, he was careful to uphold. Premier Liang's hasty replies, intended to calm Wu, have received no reply. General Wu's telegram and attitude amount, in fact, to a declaration of nonrecognition of and independence to the Peking government.

Wu probably acts with the sense that he has the whiphand in regard to the south. Although Dr. Sun and his direct followers have manifested particular bitterness against Wu Pei-fu and a willingness rather to talk with Chang Tso-lin, Chen Chiung-ming has never expressed himself thusly, and as forecasted in THE CHINA PRESS some time ago, political developments are bringing these two men nearer together. Each has an agent constantly at the headquarters of the other.

Wu Pei-fu had hoped to avert any break or avoid drastic action during the course of the Washington Conference. He had faith in Dr. Yen's handling of China's foreign problems, and desired to prevent embarrassment to the Foreign Minister and the delegates in Washington, or to weaken China's prestige abroad at this moment. Therefore, while negatively showing his disapproval of events at Peking he has refrained from positive action even when stirred to the boiling-point, as over the recent amnesty of his Anfu enemies. Then, of course, there was Tsao Kun's "face" to consider.

Now, with Liang Shih-yi, probably under Chang Tso-lin's direction, dictating foreign policy, with Dr. Yen dissatisfied and handing in his resignation, with the delegation at Washington in rebellion against instructions, Wu probably feels that things have gone to pot anyway—that prestige abroad has already been sacrificed, and that there is virtue in inaction no longer.

This, at least, is what may be gathered from the conferences going on at Loyang and Paotingfu and the gathering of China's "navy" in the Yangtsze. Tsao Kun has been the connecting link of peace between Loyang and Mukden. The triumvirate cannot, however, long continue. It has already survived much longer than expected. Tsao must merge with Wu or drop out, which is more likely, as he has no stomach for "rough stuff."

Wu's past enemies have learned that he is a man of quick decision and ruthless action. On the political chess-board, he always loses to the subtle Chang Tso-lin. On the field of battle Chang stands no chance against him so far as generalship is concerned. Sooner or later unless Chang, as thus far he has shown no evidence of doing, suddenly thinks best to allow Wu a free hand not only in the Yangtsze but in all territory south of the capital, thus allowing Wu to isolate the Peking government, Wu will transfer dealings to the sphere where he is the more likely to win. But first, he must be sure of the Yangtsze and what lies south of it. He is pondering that problem now.

General Wu's position is not an enviable one. With only a half-conquered domain under him, an enemy that may be a friend to the south of him, and a friend that is an enemy to the north of him in Manchuria, he finds the burden of action upon himself. Chang Tso-lin, the more clever politician, has so arranged it that Wu must submit or act. Usually, in China, it is the man who is not compelled to act, but may sit and watch his opportunity while others act, who gains. Wu Pei-fu, thus far, has been an exception to this rule.

QUITE TRUE

The editor gazed maliciously at the shabby poet and then at the equally shabby poem.

"Man alive!" he demanded, "do you call this poetry?"

"Her eyes were blue as skies,
Her teeth just like the stars."

"How on earth can a woman's teeth be like stars?"

The poet was very humble and he bowed before the storm.

"It is quite true, sir," he said. "She has false teeth, and, like the stars, they come out at night."

FACE IT OUT

It is easy to sit by the roadside and weep—
The sea of despair is dark and is deep.
We fail to grasp that the good will come
If only we wait till the day is done.

It's easier far to just despair,
To rail at the world with its burden of care;
But is it the pluckiest thing to do—
To start life's game and not see it through?

—To shoulder the burden and then give way,
Because Life's sky had a cloudy day?
No, take up your duty, and dare to do
And you'll find God's sun is a-peeping through.

WITTY AND WISE

Of the wit of Miss Marie Tempest, who delighted playergoers not long ago, many instances could be given. This is one of the latest.

At a party someone mentioned in her presence that a certain girl who had refused an earl had married a very wealthy manufacturer.

"Oh," said Miss Tempest without a moment's hesitation, "she very wisely preferred a business plant to a family tree."

By Bernard Shaw: "No Matter How Much The Powers Bluff At Disarming They Will Always Be Ready For War"

BY BERNARD SHAW

"Their Submarines And Warships Will All Be Commercial Ones; Their Explosive Factories Will Merely Be Dye Works; Their Gas Plants Will Supply Chemicals For Ordinary Industrial Purposes; The Working Drawings Of The Latest Magazine Rifle Will Hide Securely In A Pigeonhole. The Disarmament Items Of The Conference Do Not Matter A Scrap"

In truth, if the Powers had learned the lesson of the last war (they never do until it is hammered explosively into their unfortunate armies by the bitter experiences of the next war) they might go a great deal further than advertising a parade of the scrapping of obsolete weapons, as disarmaments. They might abolish conscription, and reduce all their armies to the dimensions of the little British professional army of 1913 without running any real risk of defeat and subjugation.

For the military lesson of 1914-18 was that armies can be improvised on any desired scale from a civilised population at the first tap of the drum. And the psychological lesson was that no country ever really prepares for war in time of peace any more than any man ever prepares for death whilst he is in robust health.

When France attacked Germany in 1870 the military authorities assured Napoleon III. that his army was ready "to the last button on the soldiers' gaiters." As it proved they were ready for nothing but the annihilation that presently befell them. When Germany attacked France in 1914, it had persuaded Europe as well as itself (and the tradition still lingers) that its military machine needed only a touch of the Kaiser's hand to start for Paris and arrive there in a fortnight with irresistible perfection of mechanism.

If it had been so prepared, Germany would have won the war. What actually happened was that Germany lost ten days by attacking Liege with regiments at peace strength and no siege guns. Though the imagination of her enemies saw German spies everywhere, and her wonderfully organised inteligence department was the bogey of the alarmist press, she knew so much less than, for example, I did, that she was held up for weeks before Antwerp by forces she could have swept away in ten minutes. And when at last her renowned General Staff were induced to realise, to the extent of allowing poison gas to be used, that they were no longer living in 1870, they were quite unprepared to take advantage of the great gap it made in our line and advanced only about five miles.

And yet the Germans are far more capable of military preparation than any other nation in the world, because, as the traditions of their more recent serfdom are still upon them, they are better organised and better disciplined.

The British, though they made as great a mess of the new tanks as the Germans did of new gas, were apparently better prepared, but even the preparations will not bear close scrutiny. Thanks to Lord Haldane, their military force, which was all they had bargained for by land, was transported to Belgium and delivered, as promised seven years before, without a casualty.

Mr. Winston Churchill was able to show that the navy went into the war with five years' accumulation of munitions and stores. Lord French had been studying the terrain on which he was to fight for years.

But we in England now know, on the authority of our naval commanders, that so many ships were unmanned and under repair for unseaworthiness in 1914 that if the German fleet had dared to attack at once we should have been Trafalgared, just as the Germans could have got through us at the first battle of Ypres "if they had only known."

Then consider the French. They can hardly plead that they were taken by surprise after agitating all Europe by their extension of military service to three years.

SEQUEL IS SAME

Nobody who before the war passed any time in Toul and thereabouts, as I did, could doubt for a moment that the French army was being drilled on the assumption that war might come at any moment. But Joffre himself admitted, in the face of the patriotic French public, that the rout from Maubeuge to Compiegne before Von Kluck was disgraceful and inexcusable. It must have meant that there had been no real preparation, no plan, no brains.

And yet these three powers, in their moral dread of one another, were each persuaded that the other had its war material up to date, its plan of consequent thought out to the final victorious march through the streets of the enemy's capital, and its men ready for mobilisation in overwhelming force and at full war strength for The Day.

I do not exaggerate more than is necessary in dealing with the thickness of some of the heads into which I have to drive the truth when I say that if nobody in Europe had ever given ten minutes' consideration to the strategy of the war before it began, there would not have been twopenceworth of difference in the sequel.

The first precept that is dinned into a military student is that he must always act on the assumption that his enemy is fully prepared. If ever I take to the military life I shall proceed on the precisely opposite assumption; and unless the opposing commander is equally intelligent and original, I shall sweep all before me, like Caesar and Alexander. I once asked a very distinguished military authority how far the strategy of the late war was ahead of the actual operation. He replied "Half a kilometer ahead of the front line."

The public idolises almost as wildly as it idolises a detective; but the generals themselves know better. Every general believes that the war in which he commands will be exactly like the war in which he fought as a young company officer from thirty to fifty years before.

MADE VICTORS OF LOSERS

In 1914 the British commanders believed that the war in Flanders would be like the South African war; and the German General Staff thought it would be like the Franco-Prussian War. The French generals, having been beaten last time, did not think at all, with very similar results. They were all sure that tanks were no use and that cavalry was indispensable. They all aimed at enveloping the other fellow, and at avoiding being enveloped by him. And nothing came of their anticipations.

They drove their enemies headlong before them, and were presently driven headlong before their enemies. They very nearly won and very nearly lost over and over again; and they would have been fighting to this day in America and the blockade had not forced the Germans to capitulate immediately after they had all but driven the fifth army into the sea and frightened the British government into declaring conscription in Ireland and madly tearing all the remaining ploughmen from their furrows, after which Lord Haig resumed the offensive as victoriously as if the British army had never been at a loss for a moment.

What is the moral of all this? Simply that the disarmament items in the agenda of the Conference do not matter a scrap. If the Powers have any sense or any

MR. ANDREWS AND GEN. FENG
Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Dear Sir: Your paper published on Jan. 8 a statement issued by a Mr. R. C. Andrews in which the writer gives a vivid picture of his unpleasant encounter with Tuchun Feng Yu-hsiang of Shensi in company with Capt. W. F. Collins. It is much to be deplored that the two gentlemen should have met, if Mr. Andrew's version of the incident is true, the discourteous treatment in the hands of Tuchun Feng, especially when it is considered that in the course of their long residence in this country as confessed by them they have always and everywhere enjoyed the cordiality and assistance of the Chinese people and officials, and that their hunting for takin in Shensi was for a noble cause, the furtherance of science.

It seems, however, there is some amount of inconsistency in Mr. Andrew's statement and this calls me to pass comment as an interested reader. In the first place the writer tries to make us believe that at a certain point of their conversation the Tuchun passed walnuts to him but not to Capt. Collins because he is an American and the latter a Britisher. Perhaps it is true that public opinion in this country is more favorable towards the United States than Great Britain, but this forms no logical ground for discriminative treatment as between individual citizens of the two great nations. It is hardly believable that a Chinese Tuchun should act like an ignorant child and particularly seize the occasion to insult Capt. Collins in such an insignificant matter.

In the second place there seems to be some mission in Mr. Andrew's statement. He does not mention whether in their interview Tuchun Feng said anything to them about the military situation in reference to the firing of their sporting guns. We learn from him, however, that on their way to South Shensi they thought it untimely to call on Gen. Feng on account of the latter's being occupied with military operations against a Gen. Chiang. From this it may easily be deduced that at the time when the two gentlemen went hunting the military situation in Shensi was nery critical and we can very well understand how the situation might be further compromised by haphazard firing on the part of the hunters.

It seems very likely Gen. Feng brought this point up in their conversation and friction was caused when the hunters endeavored to convince the General of the legality of their hunting and its harmless effects. In support of their argument they must have produced their gun permits from the Waichiaopu and their passports which are said to have been examined at Tung Kuan and at the gate of Sianfu. It is not my place to say whether the order of a department under the Central Government may or may not be temporarily disregarded by the Tuchun of a province on account of military emergencies and whether to permit carrying arms implies the owners may fire them irrespective of place and occasion, but I do incline to believe that in order to perpetuate international friendships foreign travellers ought to pay due regards to the local military situation so as to eliminate all chances for engendering misunderstanding and thus prevent international controvercies from being developed through this channel.

It is to be noticed, however, that in a passage of his statement Mr. Andrews speaks of his interpreter. Apparently the interview was not conducted entirely in the Chinese language. Did the parties understand each other very well? To me it seems the whole unpleasant incident may not be unreasonably attributed to linguistic misunderstanding. Yours etc.

British Women's Association Notes

The following members have joined the B.W.A. during the past week: Mrs. W. Abbott, Mrs. W. S. Bryant, Mrs. J. J. Dunne, Mrs. Frost, Mrs. A. Harris, Mrs. Churchill Knight and Mrs. B. Thompson. The financial year of the Association terminating on February 28, the subscriptions of members joining this and next month will carry them on to February 28, 1923.

GARDENING SECTION

A meeting of the Committee of the Gardening Section, was held by kind permission of Mrs. Ivy at 6 Love Lane on Jan. 10, when among other business a letter was read from Mr. Etterley thanking the Section for their gift of a silver cigarette box which reached him on Christmas Eve. The resignation from the honorary secretaryship of Miss A. P. Thomson, in view of her forthcoming holiday in the Antipodes and Europe, was received with warm expressions of regret. To Miss Thomson's energy, efficiency and technical experience the Section undoubtedly owes much of its success, a success which in the hands of Mrs. W. A. L. Pardoe, who has been elected to serve in her stead, will assuredly be maintained. To these two ladies must be attributed the excellent report of the Gardening Section which embodies the lectures given by various experts during last year. This report will shortly be on sale, after February 1, at most of the big shops who deal in garden seeds, etc. The price will be $1 but members of the section may obtain their copies for 50 cents by applying to Mrs. Pardoe—3 Tifeng Road—immediately. A lecture in connection with gardening will be given at Headquarters on Friday, January 20, at 5:30 p.m. of which further particulars will be announced later.

LITERARY SECTION

The next meeting of the Literary Section will be held at Headquarters on Tuesday, January 17, at 5:30 p.m. when Mrs. W. S. Read will address the members on the subject of "Credit Reform." Members are reminded that on account of China New Year holidays no meeting will take place on the 31st of this month, but that Mrs. Edwin Wood will read a paper on "Folksongs" on February 7 instead.

MUSICAL SECTION

A very attractive program has been arranged for this afternoon at the Carlton Cafe by the Musical Section, whose invitation is cordially extended to all members of the B.W.A. and their friends. Proceedings will open at 5:30 p.m. punctually with a paper on "The Life of Debussy" to be read by Mrs. N. G. Beale. This will be followed by a delightful program—items of which have already been published—contributed by Professor and Mme. Zalsman and Miss Marie d'Almeida.

ART SECTION

The third lecture of the series on "Chinese Paintings" will be delivered at Headquarters by Dr. Stafford Cox on Thursday next, January 19, at 5 p.m. Members desirous of sketching from the life are reminded that a model will sit (at Headquarters) from 5 to 7 p.m. on the Thursdays alternating with Dr. Cox's lectures. It is hoped that arrangements will shortly be made by which the Sketch Club may meet more frequently.

DRAMATIC SECTION

The Inaugural Meeting of the Dramatic Section has been fixed to take place at Headquarters on Tuesday, January 24, at 5:15 p.m., when it is hoped that all members who have applied for the formation of this section will make a point of being present. Business to be transacted comprises the election of a committee and officers and suggestions for the development of the section will be discussed.

capacity for learning from experience, they will spare their taxpayers by disbanding their armies; countermanding their orders for battleships, and sing ing peace on earth and good will towards men at the top of their voices.

Their submafine and airships will all be commercial ones: their explosive factories will merely be dye works; their gas plants will supply chemicals for ordinary industrial purposes; the working drawings of the latest magazine rifle will hide securely in a pigeon hole.

NEXT WAR MUCH THE SAME

And the next war will be just as likely to occur and be much the same when it does occur as if the Powers were visibly armed to the teeth. It will drag all the big Powers into it as the last war did.

Nothing could have seemed fairer in 1914 than the Kaiser's demand for a square fight with Russia when the Tsar would not let Austria avenge the assassination at Sarajevo. But the other Powers believed that if they stood by and kept the ring for the Kaiser he would beat Russia and become too big for the balance of power. He was caught between their refusal to promise not to attack him in the rear, and Russia's mobilisation.

In vain General von Bernhardi warned him not to give them a chance at him until he had both America and Turkey on his side. Events would not await for that combination. He was at bay, and he dashed at the French section of the ring, and dragged all the rest into the fight—Britain, Japan, Italy, Turkey, Bulgaria, Rumania and finally the United States.

Thus at bottom Germany was smashed because France and England were afraid of her; and now France is more afraid of her than ever; and England is afraid to let France give her the coup de grace.

Unfortunately, now that the problem that the Balance of Power has proven insoluble in Europe, it has risen more pressingly than ever round the Pacific Face that situation, and face the fact that disarmament would be illusory even if the Powers could be induced to disarm, and, unless you are a war profiteer, you will feel extremely gloomy, and will wonder whether in my next

Meat Prices Up, Consumption Falls

(China Press Service)

Colorado Springs, Jan. 10.—C. McDonnell, head of the American Live Stock Association which opens its annual convention here tomorrow said that the high retail price of meat was causing a continued decrease in the consumption of beef, pork and mutton in the United States.

U.S. Army Transport Overdue, Alarm Felt

Transport With 942 Aboard Now Several Days Overdue At New York

(China Press Service)

New York, Jan. 10.—Smashing gales off the Atlantic Coast are causing apprehension for the U. S. Army Transport Crook, which was due here on Friday.
The Crook carries a passenger list of 942 officers and men and civilians. It was formerly a Rumanian ship of the Allen line and was built thirty years ago. Until recently, it had plied between San Francisco and the Philippines. During the Spanish-American war she carried troops to Hawaii.

Heirs Of Caruso Reach Agreement

New York, Jan. 10.—Heirs of Enrico Caruso have reached an agreement as to the disposition of his estate, according to information verified here tonight.
Under this settlement reported from Italy a contest will be avoided. The estate is valued at approximately $600,000, whereas it had been estimated that the famous tenor was more than a millionaire.
The settlement as agreed in Italy by both sides divides Mr. Caruso's estate into five parts. One share, representing 50 percent, is to go to Giavanni Caruso, brother of Enrico Caruso.
The four other shares of 12½ percent each will go to Mrs. Caruso, the widow: Gloria Caruso, the daughter and one each to Enrico Jr., and Rodolfo Caruso, his two natural sons.

BRIGANDAGE REPORTED
(Dah Tong News Bureau)

Foochow, Jan. 11.—Information has been received by the Tuchun of Fukien that in certain parts of the province brigandage is rife. The outbreaks are ascribed to Sung Lan-yuan, a Mintang commander. Instructions have been given by the tuchun to the various commanders to take immediate action for the suppression of brigandage.

JAPANESE SPIES
(Dalia News Agency)

Dairen, Jan. 9.—The Japanese Ministers of the Interior and of Communications have agreed to establish close watch over the movements of revolutionaries. It has been decided to attach three spies to each train on all Japanese railways and to station special police at important points.

Author Lauds U.S. For Part In War

(China Press Service)

Paris, Jan. 11.—General Sarraut is quoted as saying: "In a war book by Adolph Agrio of Montevideo, he says that the Americans won the war. Had the United States not entered in 1917, he says, we would have lost."
